Newsletter: Fall edition is live right now. December 1st will bring the winter edition. (December, January, and February) Continue to submit events, birthdays, and stories for the winter months. Deadline for new submission is November 15, 2026. A question was asked if there is a way to track the number of people who accessed the Newsletter like the Area's Georgia Message. A "hit counter" would be needed, but may not be possible as the site functions now.

Motions were made to accept each report, seconded, and all were in favor.
DCM Update: 2026 Georgia Area Assembly was held September 25–27, 2026 in Dublin, Ga. It was a great event Officers were voted in, and (A) DCM Aurora D. (3D) recommended to attend to learn the requirements and have the experience. DCM Chad S. advised that Area is looking to revamp their newsletter, The Georgia Message. He also announced that he would be moving from DCM position once a replacement is available. Anyone interested, must have been a GSR, lived in Georgia and been sober for four years.

OLD Business:
Corporation Status: Received a Notice of Intent from the IRS regarding back taxes, and not the final amount. ($1,031.01) Abatement was filed and can take up to 6 months. We were advised by our retained attorney to stand down until the abatement was addressed.
Alternate Positions: Alternates for all Committees are still needed.
Christmas Party: December 19, 2026, is the scheduled date at St. Francis Xavior. Contact Will D. if you would like to help. A chat group was established to assist in planning. The planning is going well and they are on budget. A motion was made to not pass the baskets during the party, seconded, and all were in favor. Baskets will not be passed at the event.
Update on Chairperson and access to correctional facilities. If you are interested in assisting in bringing a meeting to prisons, men should contact Aaron G., and women Sissy M. They will help guide you in the processes.
For men, if interested in attaining a card to bring meeting into the correctional facilities, please note the following:

- If you are interested in going to a new prison where meetings are not currently established, Contact the prison chaplain of the facility first to determine need and support. List of Chaplains can be found on the Department of Corrections Website.
- To attain a card and access to a facility, you cannot be on parole/probation or have any pending actions. You cannot have a family member or friend incarcerated at the facility.
- Be mindful of your Social Media presence. Backgrounds are performed, and social media is part of the background.
- Cards are good for one year. You must renew. Reminder emails will be sent to the cardholder 3 months out of expiration date. You can renew online as long as you renew in a timely manner. If you let the card expire, you will have to attend the class again.

Aaron G. advised that the first meeting in the Long Unit had 12 attendees. Aaron G. will be meeting with Chaplain Valencourt on Sunday to expand into Smith prison. (Ware County)

Motion was made to accept Old Business, seconded, and all were in favor.

NEW BUSINESS:
No new business was received from the floor.

The meeting concluded at approximately 7:15 pm and was closed with the Responsibility Statement.
